CCPC CHILD CARE H.E.A.R.T.S

(Home Educators Achieving Recognition for Training and Service)

Remember that house pin you received when you became a member of CCPC? The pin symbolizes your commitment to professionalism in the field of early childhood. There are holes along the bottom to display heart dangles that proclaim your accomplishments in the profession. Many of you have already received dangles and others are currently working to achieve them. This is a reminder that the dangles will be awarded at the Saturday afternoon banquet. Wear your pin with pride!

Dangles are awarded for the following:

Professionalism:

- Red: 150 or more hours of ECE training within 3 years
- Green: Child Development Associate Credential (CDA)
- Blue: NAFCC Accreditation
- Yellow: Second Helping Graduate
- Purple: Provider of the Year

Education:

- Bronze: Associate Degree in ECE or related field
- Silver: Bachelors Degree in ECE or related field
- Gold: Masters Degree in ECE or related field

Service:

- Pink: 5 to 14 years providing child care
- Lt. Blue: 14 to 24 years providing child care
- Lt. Green: 25 plus years providing child care

CEU Track

Helping Parents and Providers Understanding Temperament

This is a six (6) session track (.6 CEU's) Saturday

Participants will receive an overview of the three types of temperaments and the four traits associated with each temperament. They will explore the importance of attachment and integrity of a good fit between adult and child. They will consider cultural influences on temperament. Participants will gain an awareness of reasons and benefits for including children with special needs in their program. In addition, ways of helping parents recognize and responding to children's different temperaments

Family Involvement Strategies for Your Program

This is a four (4) session track (.4 CEU's) Pending Approval

Developed by Kansas Parent Information Resource Center through ~~The No Child Left Behind Act.~~ Correct wording
Participants will have a working knowledge of research related to family involvement. They will understand the importance of family involvement as it pertains to their setting. Participants will compare current practices in their setting to best practices for family involvement. They will use resources and strategies to plan family involvement in their setting.

Special Note

CCPC has made every effort to create a conference that is developmentally appropriate for the ADULTS for whom it is designed. While we are sensitive to the child care needs of attendees, we do encourage everyone to bring their families to enjoy the hotel amenities, tours and local attractions. Please keep in mind our workshops and Awards Banquet are Not designed for children.
